

Bleef Narzgraf Pweet Harngrod!

FACT:  Some guitar instructors are in reality scouts for an extra-galactic invasion fleet.

FACT:  The cryptic-sounding,  otherworldly anti-melodies they teach you are actually extra-terrestrial communications.

FACT:  When you arrive home after your lesson, you invariably play these strange sounds
  through a loud amplifier.

FACT:  Upon doing this, you are unwittingly transmitting coded invasion instructions to alien warships in a holding pattern behind Pluto's orbital shadow!

So, beware of humanoid impersonators . . . They are invidious Nemesistrans from the planet Narzgraf!

Human status proof required for all prospective students.
