

You're Special !!

At last, guitar lessons that are specially designed for you, the individual student.

You have heard claims by instructors of emphasis on your individual interest, abilities, and goals . . . Well, we have distilled the essence of this idea to its most perfect form: lessons which focus only upon what you already know how to play.

Soon, through the use of patented Musical Autism Augmentation Techniques™, you will be playing more like yourself than ever! Best of all, you won't have to go through the arduous and time-consuming process of actually learning anything at all !!

So just smile, ease back, and wallow in that rut you've been fighting for so long. Learn to enjoy your own personal "dead end" that makes you the unique musician that you are. And, of course, if you're a rank beginner, there is nothing I can teach you . . . you have achieved the course objective already!
