

If you exhibit any of the following symptoms, you may be suffering from one of the many forms of . . .

GUITAR LESSON DEFICIENCY SYNDROME

- |    | YES                      | NO                       |  |
|----|--------------------------|--------------------------|--|
| 1. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Do the same old trite, tired licks offend your ears for the billionth time? acute licklackitus repititus anachronismia  |
| 2. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Do you get that blank, empty feeling when trying to recall the very next chord of a song you're playing? chordus interruptus  |
| 3. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Do you lie awake at night in a cold sweat, brow furrowed, dry-mouthed, your mind racing, wondering: "Which came first, the scale or the chord?" musica metaphysica dementia |
| 4. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Do you feel disoriented, disjointed and fur-brained when pondering the seemingly insurmountable complexities of the guitar neck? fretboard psychosis                        |
| 5. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Do you despair upon realizing that after playing guitar for five years, you still can't play a B flat chord without a capo? bucholic folkaholic caponic imbecilism          |
| 6. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | I've been playing the blues for ten years now . . . I think I'm too depressed to take lessons. chronic stylistic monomorphism   |
| 7. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | I'm so frustrated! I can't play anything without duds, buzzes and flubs . . . HELP! technicalis infantalis  |
